

A SKELETON KEY TO THE GEMSTONE FILE

The Gemstone File was written in many segments over a period of years by an American man named Bruce Roberts. Parts of the file were released to certain Americans beginning in 1961. The number of pages (handwritten) is well over a thousand, of which I have read about four hundred. I have been able to verify some of the statements made in the file, but do not have the time or the research facilities to verify the entire story. Perhaps others can help. Since the scope of the work is so large, and the events described so complex and interlocking, it may be more easily understood with this skeleton outline of the Gemstone thesis. Individual papers can then be read with greater comprehension.

1932: Onassis, a Greek drug pusher and ship owner who made his first million selling "Turkish tobacco" (opium) in Argentina, worked out a profitable deal with Joseph Kennedy, Eugene Meyer, and Meyer Lansky: Onassis was to ship booze directly into Boston for Joseph Kennedy. Also involved was a heroin deal with Franklin and Elliot Roosevelt.

1934: Onassis and Rockefeller and the Seven Sisters (major oil companies) signed an agreement, outlined in an oil cartel memo: Such the Arabs get of their oil, ship it on Onassis' ships--Rockefeller and the Seven Sister to get rich. All this was done.

Roberts, studying journalism and physics at the University of Wisconsin, learned these things via personal contacts. His special interest was in crystallography--and the creation of synthetic rubies, the original Gemstone experiment.

1936-41: Eugene Meyer buys the Washington Post, to get control of news media; other Mafia buy other papers, broadcasting, TV, etc. News censorship of all major media goes into effect.

1941-45: World War II: Very profitable for Onassis, Rockefeller, Kennedy, Roosevelts, I.C. Farben, etc, etc. Onassis selling oil and arms to both sides, went through war without losing a single ship or man.

1949: Onassis buys U.S. war surplus "Liberty ships" in questionable (illegal) purchase. Lawyer Burke Marshall helps him.

1956: Howard Hughes, Texas millionaire, is meanwhile buying his way into control of the U.S. electoral process--with a view toward his own personal gain. He buys senators, governors, etc. He finally buys his last politician: newly elected V.P. Nixon, via a quarter-million dollar non-repayable loan to Nixon's brother Donald.

Early 1957: V.P. Nixon repays the favor by having IRS--Treasury guys grant tax-free status (refused twice before) to Hughes Medical Foundation, sole owner of Hughes Aircraft, creating a tax-free, non-accountable money funnel or laundry, for whatever Hughes wanted to do. Also, U.S. government shelved anti-trust suits against Hughes TWA, etc.

March, 1957: Onassis carries out a carefully planned event: he has Hughes kidnapped from his bungalow at the Beverly Hills Hotel, using Hughes' own men, (Chester Davis, born in Cesare, Sicily, et al). Hughes' men either quit, got fired, or stayed in the New Onassis organization. A few days later, Mayor Cannon (now Senator Cannon) of Nevada, arranges a fake "Marriage" to Jean Peters, to explain Hughes' sudden loss of interest in chasing movie stars. Hughes, battered and brain damaged in the scuffle, is taken to the Emerald Isle Hotel in the Bahamas, where the entire top floor has been rented for the "Hughes party"; there, he is shot full of heroin for thirty days, and later dragged off to a cell on Onassis' island, Skorpios. Onassis now has a much larger power base in the U.S. (the Hughes empire), as well as control over V.P. Nixon, and other Hughes-purchased politicians. L. Wayne Rector, "Hughes" double since 1955, becomes "Hughes."

Later in 1957: Onassis calls the Appalachian meeting to announce to the U.S. Mafia heads his grab of Hughes, and his adoption of Hughes' game plan for acquiring power: buying U.S. senators, congressmen, governors, en masse, to take control "legally" of the U.S. government. Onassis' radio message to Appalachian from a remote Pennsylvanian farmhouse intercepted (reluctantly) by FBI's J. Edgar Hoover, on the basis of a tip-off from some Army Intelligence guys who weren't in on the plan.

Also in 1957: Joseph Kennedy takes John F. and Jackie to see Onassis on his yacht, introduce John, and remind Onassis of an old Mafia promise: the Presidency for a Kennedy. Onassis says sure.

1958: Hordes of Mafia-selected, purchased, supported candidates sweep into office.

1959: Castro takes over Cuba from dictator Batista, thereby destroying the and lucrative Mafia gambling empire run for Onassis by Meyer Lansky. Castro scoops up 8 million dollars in Mafia casino receipts. Onassis is very annoyed. V.P. Nixon becomes operations chief for CIA-planned Bay of Pigs invasion.

using CIA Hunt, McCord, etc., and Cuban ex-Battista strongarm cops ("Cuban freedom fighters") Martinez, Gonzalez, etc., as well as winners like Frank Sturgis (Fiorini).

1959: Election battle between Kennedy and Nixon. Either way, Onassis wins since he has control over both candidates.

1960: JFK elected. American people happy. Rose Kennedy happy. Onassis happy. Mafia ecstatic.

Roberts brings his synthetic rubies--the original "Gemstones"--to Hughes Aircraft in Los Angeles. Nervously, they steal his rubies--the basis for "Laser beam" research, laser bombs, etc. As a result, Roberts learns of the Onassis-Hughes connection, kidnap, switch.

April, 1961: CIA Bay of Pigs fiasco. Hunt, McCord, CIA, Battista, Cubans, and Mafia angry about JFK's lack of enthusiasm. Onassis has his U.S. right-hand man, "Hughes" top aid, former FBI and CIA Robert Maheu, hire and train a Mafia assassination team to get Castro. The team of a dozen or so includes John Roselli and Jimmy (the Weasel) Frattiano, expert Mafia hitmen, assisted by Hunt and McCord, CIA (as reported recently by Jack Anderson, who gets a lot of his "tips" from his friend Frank Sturgis (Fiorini)). The team tries five times to kill Castro, with everything from long-range rifles to sodium morphate pellets. Castro survives.

Joseph Kennedy has a stroke, ending his control over John and Bobby. The boys decide to rebel against Onassis' control. God knows why! Inter-Mafia struggle? Perhaps a dim hope of restoring this country to its mythical integrity? They commit the following Mafia no-no's: arrest Wally Pird, owner of Air Thailand, who has been shipping Onassis' heroin out of the Golden Triangle (Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam), under contract with the CIA (Air Opium); arrest Teamster Mafia Jimmy Hoffa and put him in jail; declare the $73 million in forged "Hughes" land liens, deposited with S.F.'s Bank of America (originally Bank of Italy, owned by A.G. Giannini), as "security for the TWA judgement against Hughes, to be what they are: forgeries.

1963: Members of the Castro assassination team arrested at Lake Pentchert Pennsylvania. Angered, Onassis stops trying to kill Castro and goes for the head: JFK, who, according to Onassis, "welched" on a Mafia deal.

JFK sets up "Group of 40" to fight Onassis.

Aug. 1963: Two murders had to occur before the murder of JFK, of people who would understand the situation and might squawk:

1) Sen. Estes Kefauver, whose Crime Commission investigations had

... of the Mafia deal between ... Kennedy, Eugene Meyer, ... Roosevelt, et al. Kefauver planned a speech on the Senate floor denouncing Mafia operations; instead, he ate a piece of apple pie laced with sodium morphate (used in rat poison) and had a sodium morphate-induced "heart attack" on the senate floor.

2) Phillip Graham, editor of the Washington Post. Phillip had married Katherine Meyer, Eugene Meyer's daughter, who had inherited the Post and allied media empire. Graham put together the Kennedy-Johnson ticket, and was Kennedy's friend in the struggle with Onassis. According to Gemstone, Katherine Meyer Graham bribed some psychiatrists to certify that Phil was insane; he was allowed out of the nuthouse for the weekend, and dies of a shotgun wound in the head, in the Graham home in Washington. Death ruled a "suicide."

Nov. 1963: The hit on JFK was supposed to take place in true Mafia style: a triangle execution, together with Diem and Thu in Vietnam. Diem and Thu got theirs, as scheduled. Onassis had invited Jackie for a cruise on the Christina, where she was when JFK got tipped off that Onassis planned to wipe him out. JFK called Jackie on the yacht, from the White House, hysterical: "Get off that yacht if you have to swim," and cancelled his appearance at a football stadium in Chicago, where CIA-Mafia assassination was poised for the kill. Jackie stayed on board, descended the gangplank a few days later on Onassis' arm, in Turkey, to impress Mustaphia. Madame Thu in the United States, bitterly remarked, "Whatever had happened in Vietnam, will see its counterpart in the United States."

One of the assassination team was picked up in Chicago with a rifle, and was quickly released by the police. Three weeks later, the Mafia's alternate and carefully arranged execution plan went into effect: JFK was assassinated at Dallas. A witness who recognized pictures of some of the people arrested in Dealey Plaza as having been in Chicago three weeks earlier, told Black Panthers Hampton and Clark.

The JFK murder: Onassis-"Hughes" man, Maheu, reassigned the Mafia-CIA team to the murder of JFK, adding Eugene Brading, a third Mafia hitman from the Denver Smaldonen family. Two months earlier, Brading, out on parole after a series of crimes, applied for a new driver's license, explaining to the California DMV that he decided to change his name to "Jim Braden Brading; got his parole officer's permission for two trips to Dallas, in November, on "oil business"--the first time, to look things over, and the second time, when JFK was scheduled for his Dallas trip.

Lee Harvey Oswald, CIA, with carefully planted lines to both the ultra-right and to the Communists, was designated as the patsy. He was supposed to shoot at Gov. Connally and he did.

Each of the four shooters--Oswald, Brading, Frattiano, and Roselli--had a timer and a back-up man. Back-up men were supposed to pick up the shells, get rid of the guns. Timers would give the signals to shoot. Hunt and McCoy were there to help. Sturgis was in Miami.

Frattiano shot from a second-story window in the Dal-Tex building across the street from the Texas School Book Depository, using a hand-gun apparently--he is an excellent shot with a pistol. Frattiano apparently hit Kennedy twice in the back and in the head. Frattiano and his backup man were "arrested", driven away from the Dal-Tex building in a police car, and released (without being booked). The Dallas Police office is in the Dal-tex building.

Roselli shot Kennedy once, hitting the right side of his head and blowing his brains out, with a rifle, from behind a fence in the grassy knoll area. Roselli and his backup man went down a manhole behind the fence and followed the sewer line away from Dealey Plaza.

The third point of the triangulated ambush was supplied by Eugene Brading shooting from Kennedy's left, from a small pagoda at Dealey Plaza, across the street from the grassy knoll. Brading missed because Roselli's and Frattiano's shots had just hit Kennedy in the head, nearly simultaneously. Brading was photographed on the scene, stuffing a gun under his coat. He wore a big leather hat, its headband marked with conspicuous, large X's. (Police had been instructed to let anyone with an X-marked hatband through police lines; some may have been told they were Secret Service.) After his shot, Brading ditched his gun with his backup man and walked up the street toward the Dal-Tex building. Roger Craig, a deputy sheriff, rushed up to Brading, assuming he was "Secret Service", and told him he had just seen a man come out of the Book Depository and jump into a station wagon. Brading was uninterested. He walked into the Dal-Tex building to "make a phone call" and was arrested by another deputy sheriff, showed his driver's license in the name of Jim Braden, and was quickly released, without being booked.

Oswald shot Connally twice from the Texas School Book Depository. He split from the front door. His backup man was supposed to take the rifle out of the building (or so Oswald thought); instead, he "hid" it behind some boxes, where it would be found later.

Three men dressed as "tramps" picked up shells from Dealey Plaza. One

...up behind the grumpy... and waited. A Dallas police officer ordered two Dallas cops to "go over to the boxcar and pick up the tramps." The three tramps paraded around Dealey Plaza to the Police Dept. (in the Dal*Tex building); there they were held until the alarm went out to pick up Oswald; then they were released, without being booked. In all, ten men were arrested immediately after the shooting. All were released soon after, none of them were booked, and not a word about their existence is mentioned in the Warren Report.

Regarding Lee Harvey Oswald: Officer Tippitt was dispatched in his police radio car to the Oak Cliff section, where Oswald had rented a room. Tippitt met Oswald on the street. He was apparently supposed to kill Oswald, but something went wrong. Tippitt was shot by two men, using two revolvers. The "witness", Domingo Benavides, who used Tippitt's police car radio to report "We've had a shooting here," may have been one of the men who shot him. (A "Domingo Benavides" appears in connection with the Martin Luther King shooting also).

Oswald went to the movies. A "shoe store manager" told the movie theater cashier that a suspicious-looking man had sneaked into the theater without paying. Fifteen assorted cops and FBI charged out to the movie theater to look for the guy who sneaked in. Oswald had been given a pistol that would fire. It may have been anticipated that the police would shoot a "cop-killer" for "resisting arrest". But, since this didn't happen, small-time Mafia, Jack Ruby obliged two days later.

Brading stayed at Teamster-Mafia-Hoffa financed "Cabana Hotel" in Dallas. Ruby had gone to the Cabana the night before.

The rest, as they say, is history. Onassis was so confident of his control over police, media, FBI, CIA, Secret Service, and the U.S. judicial system that he had JFK murdered before the eyes of the nation; then systematically bought off, killed off, or frightened off all witnesses, and had the evidence destroyed; then put a 75 year seal of secrecy over the entire matter. Cover participants included (among many): Gerald Ford, on the Warren Commission, (a Nixon recommendation), CIA attorney Leon Jaworski, representing Texas before the Commission to see that the fair name of Texas was not besmirched by the investigation; CIA-Dallas Chief, McCone; his assistant, Richard Helm and a passle of police, FBI, news media, etc.

Where are they now?

Johnny Roselli received part of his pay-off for the head shot on JFK in the form of a $250,000 "finder's fee" for bringing "Hughes" (Onassis) to Las Vegas in 1967.

...in "nonrepayable loans" from the S.F. National Bank (President Joe Alioto). Credit authorization for the series of loans, from 1964 to 1965, came from Joe Alioto and a high Teamster official. Dan and Bradstreet noted this transaction in amazement, listing the loans in their 1964-1965 monthly reports, and wondering how Frattiano could obtain so much "credit", as his only known title (listed in D&B) was "Mafia executioner." Frattiano went around for years bragging about it: "Hi there, I'm Jimmy Frattiano, Mafia executioner..." A bank V.P. told the whole story to the California Crime Commission, such as Al Harris, and it was hidden in a file folder there.

When last seen, Frattiano was testifying before an S.F. Grand Jury in regard to his participation, with East Coast Mafia Tony Romano, in the Sunc Golf Course swindle (which cost S.F. somewhere between $100,000 and $500,00 with the active help of Mayor Joe Alioto. (this was in March 1975).

In between, Frattiano used his $100,000 in "nonrepayable loans" to start a trucking company in the Imperial Valley, where he engaged in a lot more swindling--involving U.S. Government construction contracts. As one California Crime Commission member explained, "The Mafia is doing business directly with the U.S. Government now."

Brading was questioned by the FBI two months after his arrest--and release at Dallas, as part of the Warren Commission's determination to "leave no stone unturned" in its quest for the truth about the JFK assassination. In spite of the facts that Brading was a known criminal with an arrest record dating back about twenty years, the FBI simply reported that Brading knew nothing whatsoever about the assassination.

Brading decided to become a charter member of the La Costa Country Club, Mafia haven down near San Clemente. He also became a runner for the skip money from the Onassis "Hughes" Las Vegas casinos to Onassis' Swiss bank.

Gerald Ford, of the Warren Commission, went on to become President--by appointment of Nixon, then in danger of even further and more serious exposure--from which position of trust he pardoned Nixon one month later for "any and all crimes he may have committed." That covers quite a lot, but Ford is good at covering things up.

McCone, head of CIA-Dallas, went on to become a member of the ITT Board of Directors--sitting right next to Francise L. Dale, the head of GREEP. Richard Helms, His assistant at Dallas, ultimately turned up as CIA Director. Leon Jaworski became the Watergate special prosecutor, replacing Cox, who was getting too warm. Jaworski turned in a sterling performance in "our government as theater," as the honest, conscientious investigator who "uncovered" not a bit more than he had to--and managed to steer everybody away from the underlying truth.

Dr. "Red" Duke, the man who dug two bullets out of Connally and saved his life, was shipped to a hospital in Afghanistan by a grateful CIA.

Jim Garrison, New Orleans D.A., who tried to get Eugene Brading out of L.A. (but used one of Brading's other aliases, Eugene Bradley, by mistake) had his witnesses shot out from under him, and was framed on charges of bribery and extortion. FBI officers "confiscated" photos of Brading taken on the scene. etcetera.

After JFK's death, Onassis quickly established control over Lyndon Johnson through fear. On the trip back to Washington, Johnson was warned by radio, relayed from an Air Force base: "There was no conspiracy. Get it, Lyndon!" Onassis filled all important government posts with his own men. All government agencies became means to accomplish an end: rifle the American Treasury, steal as much as possible, keep the people confused and disorganized and leaderless; pursue world domination. JFK's original "Group of 40" was turned over to Rockefeller and his man, Kissinger, so that they could more efficiently run over South America.

Silva, an S.F. private detective hired by Angelina Alioto to get the goods on philandering Joe, followed Joe Alioto to Vacaville, to the Nut Tree restaurant, where he held a private meeting with other Mafioso to arrange the details of the JFK assassination payoff.

1967: Onassis has always enjoyed the fast piles of money to be made through gambling (in Monaco in the 50's and in Cuba, under Battista). Onassis took over Las Vegas in 1967, via the "Hughes" cover.

Note: L. Wayne Rector was hired around 1955 by the Carl Byoir P.R. agency (Hughes' L.A. P.R. firm) to act as Hughes' double; in 1957, when Onassis grabbed Hughes, Rector continued to act as his stand-in. Rector was the R surrogate in Las Vegas; Robert Maheu actually ran the show; Maheu got his orders from Onassis.

June 17, 1968: Bobby Kennedy knew immediately who had killed his brother; wrote about it in his unpublished book, The Enemy Within. When he foolishly tried to run for President, Onassis had him offed, using a sophisticated technique: hypnotized Sirhan Sirhan shooting from the front, "security guard" Thane Cesar (from Lockheed) shooting from two or three inches away from Bobby's head, from the rear. Sirhan's shots all missed; Cesar's couldn't possibly miss. Evelle Younger, then the LA D.A., covered it up; was rewarded with the post of California Attorney General later. His son, Eric Younger, got a second-generation reward: a judgeship at age 30. (See Ted Charach, author and director of The Second Sun, a documentary film on the JFK murder bought and suppressed by Mafia Warner Brothers, for more details.) After Bobby's death, Teddy knew who did it. He immediately ran to Onassis, afraid for his life, and swore eternal obedience.

Sept 10, 1968: Hit-and-run accident on Robert's car, parked in front of the Russian consulate in S.F.--who routinely take pictures of everything that goes on in front of the consulate. Their photos showed the license plate of the hit-and-run car: a pink Cadillac belonging to Mia Angela Alioto, being driven by Tom Alioto, Joe's son--whose driving license had been revoked. His license, and the car's license, were both fraudulent. To cover up the hit-and-run circumstances, S.F. H.P.'s from the Presidio staged a few more hit-and-runs on the same corner, all duly filmed by the Russians. Katherin Hollister, the Alioto family nurse, was "persuaded" to take the rap for the hit-and-run. Roberts, irritated by the auto insurance company's (also Mafia) plan to not pay off, threatened to spill the whole story, in court, with photos.

Next day, Brading and Frattiano show up in the Black Magic Bar--Brading wearing his X-marked hat from Dallas--to see whether Roberts recognizes it, how much he knows, etc. A S.F. H.P. from the Presidio walks up from the end of the bar: "I heard they let everyone with an X-marked hatband through the police lines at Dallas." Coverup support for Alioto in the hit-and-run was complete.

Oct. 1968: Jackie Kennedy was now "free" to marry Onassis. An old Mafia rule: If someone welches on a deal, kill him, and take his gun and his girl; in this case, Jackie and the Pentagon.

July 1969: Mary Jo Kopechne, devoted JFK girl, and later one of Bobby's trusted aides, was in charge of packing up his files after his assassination in L.A. She read too much--learned about the Kennedy-Mafia involvement, and other things. She said to friends: This isn't Camelot, this is murder. She was an honest, decent, idealistic American Catholic. She didn't like murder, hypocrites. She died trying to get off Chappaquiddick Island, where she had heard Teddy Kennedy's end of D.H. Lawrence cottage telephone calls from John Tunney, and to Joe Alioto, and Democratic bigwigs Swid, Shorestein, Schuman, and Bechtel, re: the 1970 California Senatorial elections, and possible murder. Mary Jo was trying to get to Ralph Nader. Teddy left her to suffocate in the submerged car while he ran to set up an alibi. It took Mary Jo two hours and 37 minutes to suffocate, while Teddy called Jackie, Onassis, Katherine Graham, lawyers, etc. Jackie called the Pope on Teddy's behalf, who assigned Cardinal Cushing to help. The next morning, the first person Teddy tried to call after deciding he's have to take the rap himself was: Burke Marshall, Onassis' friend in the U.S. Liberty ships deal back in the forties; and also the designated custodian of JFK's brain after Dallas (the brains have since disappeared).

Complete coverup of Chappaquiddick murder required the help of: Massachusetts Highway Patrol, judges, Police Chief Arenas, Cardinal Cushing's Priests who convinced the Kopechne's not to have an autopsy; the U.S. Senate, which never said a word about Teddy's plug-in phone (required equipment); and the East and West phone companies, etc.

John Tunney's sister, Joan, heard her brother's end of the phone call, made from her house in Tiburon, CA. The next day, after Mary Jo died, Joan ran away to Norway, where she was kidnapped by Mafia hoods Mari and Adamo(?) They locked her up in a Marseilles heroin factory for 60 days, where heroin fumes turned her into a junkie (no needle marks); then turned her loose outside the factory. Joan's husband complained, so she chopped his head off with an axe, and was subsequently locked up in a nuthouse belonging to the Marquess of Blandford, then Tina Livanos Onassis' husband. Mari and Adamo got pressed into scrap metal in a New Jersey junkyard.

In the panic of trying to cover up Teddy's guilt at Chappaquiddick, many things came unglued. The JFK Murder threatened to creep out of the woodwork. Black Panthers Hampton and Clark were murdered (the Chicago cops fired over attorney Charles Carry's head), because of what they knew about the JFK murder squad at Chicago.

Sept 1969: "Gemstones", with Histories, had been released around the globe for several years. In 1969, Roberts gave a Gemstone, with history to Nixon, with the proposition: the Presidency, in return for wiping out the Mafia. the "history" included Teddy's phone calls to and from the Lawrence cottage on Chappaquiddick--billed to Teddy's home phone in Hyannisport.

End of 1970: Howard Hughes' presence on earth no longer required. His handwriting could be duplicated by a computer. His biography, all the known facts about his life, had been compiled and a computerized biography issued to top Hughes executives. His double, Rector, had been doing "Hughes" for years and Hughes was ill.

Clifford Irving, author of "Hoax", or whatever, about an art forger, became interested in "Hughes". Said he wanted to write a book. Went to "Hughes" "Mormon Mafia"--the six "nurse maids"--for information. One of them, Merryman perhaps tired of the game, gave Irving the computerized biography of Hughes and from it, Irving wrote his "autobiography."

Hughes death was expected shortly. Preparations were being made so that it would not interfere with the orderly continuation of his "empire." Irving wrote his book, and the publishers announced their "authorized biography." Onassis knew someone had given Irving the information, but didn't know who. He thought it was Robert Maheu, and fired him in Nov. 1970. On Thanksgiving Eve, 1970, in the middle of the night, "Hughes" (Rector) made a well-publicized "secret departure" from Las Vegas to the Bahamas.

Dec. 1970: Onassis discovered his mistake, and had Merryman killed.

Robert Maheu, accidentally deprived of his half-million dollars annual salary, sued "Hughes" for millions, and had his blackmail carefully hedged. Onassis paid off, cheap at the price, to maintain his custodianship of "American democracy" and the "free world" and keep himself from hanging for multiple murders.

The "Hughes" "Mormon Mafia" fled around the world, from the Bahamas, where they murdered a governor and a police chief who noticed that there really was no "Hughes", just Mafia, to Nicaragua; thence to Canada, where they did a good bit of looting of the Canadian Stock Exchange (Mormon Mafia Eckersley presiding); and then on to England, where they holed up at Rothschild's Inn of the Park, London.

April 18, 1971: Howard Hughes, a human vegetable as the result of serious brain damage during his 1957 hustle, grew sicker and sicker. A final overdose of heroin did him in. He died, and his coffin was lowered into the sea from a rocky headland off the coast of Skorpis. Present at the funeral were Jack Kennedy; Teddy Kennedy; Francis L. Dale, head of CREEP, and on the ITT Board of Directors, and an Onassis man; the Greek Tom Pappas, also CREEP, also Onassis; and a South Vietnamese cardinal named Thue. Onassis allowed some pictures to be taken from a distance; he himself did not appear.

Arab frogmen, tipped off, were waiting underwater for the coffin to be lowered. They grabbed it, and took the corpse off to Yugoslavia, thence to China and Russia, and then, perhaps, back to Boston in a footlocker. The corpse's dental work was compared to Hughes' very own dental records, and it matched. News of Hughes' death, the U.S. takeover by Onassis, and the facts surrounding the murders of JFK, RFK, Martin Luther King, Mary Jo Kopechne, and many more, and the subsequent coverups (including still more murders) has been circulating around the globe for several years. Any country who has this information can use it to blackmail the U.S. Mafia government, which has no choice but to pay up. The alternative: Be exposed as a bunch of treacherous murderers. Note: On the very day Hughes died, Clifford Irving's wife presented the check made out by "H. Hughes" to Onassis Swiss bank for payment. Onassis paid off--as cheap the price.

"Gemstone" papers rolling around the world, in this country and abroad, kept things hot. Everyone was nervous. Rockefeller gave Kissinger $50,000 for Carlson and Brisson to write their "expose", "The Alioto Mafia Job." Their mission was to find out everything that was public record about Alioto connection with the JFK murder (his payoffs to Jimmy Frattiano), and explain it away--in any way that didn't lead back to Dallas. The idea was to get Alioto to quickly go away, but still keep the lid on everything.

May, 1971: Tina Livanos Onassis Blandford married Stavros Niarchos, her former brother-in-law. Niarchos had earlier murdered Eugenie, his wife, Tina's sister, because, in bed with him, she had overheard a phone conversation between him and his ex-wife, Charlotte Ford, over the Chappaquiddick mess.

May, 1971: "Folk hero" Daniel Ellsberg, a well known hawk from the Rand Corp. who had designed the missile ring around the "Iron Curtain" countries (how many missiles were to be aimed at which cities), was told to release the faked-up "Pentagon Papers", to help distract people from Hughes, JFK, RFK, ML, etc. The papers were carefully designed by Ellsberg and his boss, Rand chief and now World Bank chief Robert McNamara, to make the Vietnamese War look like "just one of those incredibly dumb mistakes." This helped cover the real purpose of the war: Continued control, for Onassis and his friends, of the Golden Triangle dope trade (Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam); and for Onassis and the oil people of eastern oil sources. McNamara's "World Bank"--handing out American money to "starving nations"--actually set up huge private bank accounts for various dictators in Onassis-controlled Swiss banks. The money could be used as needed to support and extend Mafia operations. Example: $8 billion in World Bank funds for "starving Ethiopians" wound up in Emperor Haile Selassie's personal Swiss bank accounts. This would make him the richest individual in the world--but other dictators have Swiss bank accounts too. Maybe even larger. The money, drained from America and other captive Mafia nations to feed a greed that can never be satisfied.

Note in passing: The dope trade routes are: Golden Triangle to Taiwan to San Francisco. Heroin coming from the Golden Triangle was sometimes smuggled into S.F. in the bodies of American GI's who died in battle in Vietnam.

One body can hold up to 40 pounds of heroin, crammed in where the guts would be. Some dope gets pressed into dinner plates, and painted with pretty patterns. One dope bust in S.F. alone yielded $6 billion in heroin, the largest dope bust in history, quickly and completely hushed up by the S.F. press Mafia. The dope sat in the S.F.P.D. for a while, then was removed by FBI men, and probably sent on its way: to American young. All this dope processing and shipping is controlled and supervised by the Mafia, for the Mafia. Dope arrests and Murders are aimed at independent pushers and smugglers who are competing with, or holding out on the Mafia. While Nixon was conducting his noisy campaign against dope smuggling across the Mexican border, his do officer in charge of protecting the Mafia dope trade was E. Howard Hunt.

Lots of heroin gets processed in a Pepsi Cola factory in Laos. So far, it hasn't produced a single bottle of PepsiCola. Some dope gets processed in Heroin factories in Marseilles. Still more dope comes from South America--cocaine. U.S. aid went to build a highway across Uruguay (Paraguay?). useless to the natives who have no cars, they use it for sunbathing in the day. All night, airplanes loaded with cocaine take off from the longest landing strip in the world--financed by U.S. tax money for the benefit of international Mafia dope pushers. And then there is opium from Turkey; morphine--the starting point of Onassis' fortune.

In case one is still wondering whether the Mafia can actually get away with such things, consider the benefits derived from controlling the stock market, the courts, the police, etc. In one swindle alone: the 1970 acquisition by "Hughes" of Air West, which involved swindling Air West stockholders of $45 million. recently, indicted for this swindle by the S.F.C. (in a civil suit) were "Howard Hughes" and Jimmy ("the Greek") Snyder, "not usually associated with the Hughes crowd," and others.

Nixon had gotten a copy of the first Gemstone papers circulated in the U.S. back in 1969. He was then wondering exactly how much Democratic Chairman Larry O'Brien knew about Chappaquiddick, Hughes, Onassis, JFK, RFK, et al, and more specifically, how much of the dirt the Democrats planned to use.

June, 1971: New York Times begins publishing the Pentagon Papers, Rand Corp.'s prepared coverup of the real reasons for the Vietnamese war: protection of Golden Triangle dope trade, offshore oil interests, etc. of Onassis and friends.

Nixon sets up "plumbers unit" to "stop security leaks, investigate other sensitive security matters." Ehrlichman, Krogh, Liddy, Young, etc.

Hunt, as "White House Consultant", supposedly worked for the Mullen Corp., a CIA cover. Mullen's chief clients: "Howard Hughes" Robert Bennett was the head of Mullen Corp.

June 28, 1971: Ellsberg indicted for leaking the Pentagon Papers.

Sept. 3, 1971: The Watergate team broke into Ellsberg's doctor's (Fielding's) office to get Ellsberg's psychiatric records. Team members: Hunt, Liddy, De Diego, Martinez, Bernard Barker.

Question: Why the intense battle between Mafia forces?

Answer: While Onassis was the recognized crowned head of the Mafia, intense no-holds-barred scuffling for the lucrative U.S. second spot (control of U.S. Presidency, government, and so on) was permissible, and encouraged under the Mafia code of rules. The only stipulation: outsiders mustn't know about it. "Hughes" contributed liberally, and equally, to both Democratic and Republican parties for the 1972 election; the winner would get even more money from "Hughes".

Sept. 23, 1971: E. Howard Hunt spliced up the phony cables implicating JFK's administration in the Diem Assassination.

Oct. 1971: Look magazine apologized to Alioto for their "Alioto Mafia Web" article--and folded. The sticking point: they couldn't prove Alioto's Mafia Nut Tree meeting back in 1963 re: JFK murder.

November 1971: Alioto reelected Mayor of S.F.

Dec. 1971: Bruce Roberts applies for a "Gemstone" visa from the Russian consulate--on a tapped phone. Phone was tapped by Hal Lipset, S.F. private detective, who worked for Katherine Graham, and others, and routinely monitored consulate phone calls.

January 1972: The watergate team shows up at the S.F. Drift Inn, a CIA-FBI safe-house hangout bar where Roberts conducted a nightly Gemstone rap, for the benefit of any CIA or FBI or anyone who wandered in for a beer; included James McCord, Martinez, Dr. Fuller, Bernard Barker, Garcia, and Frank Stur. James McCord's remark: "Sand and oil with hydrogen heat makes glass brick"--a threat of war to Arab nations. The events, like the other nightly raps, taped by the Drift Inn bartender, Al Strom who was paid to do so by his old friend, Katherine Meyer Graham--but told his other friend, Roberts, about

The bar was also wired for sound by Arabs, Russians, and Chinese.
Jan 27, 1972: Liddy and Dean met in Mitchell's office, with Liddy's charlie of his $1 million "plan" of spying, kidnapping, etc. The plans included breaking into Hank Greenspan's Las Vegas office safe, in hopes of recovering Greenspan's files on the Hughes kidnapping and Onassis' Vegas operations.

which Greenspan had successfully used to blackmail Onassis out of four million or so $. A "Hughes" getaway plane would stand by to take the White House burglars to Mexico.

February 1972: Liddy and Hunt travelled around a lot, using Hughes Tool Co calling cards, and aliases from Hunt's spy novels.

Liddy, Hunt, and other Watergaters dropped by for a beer at the Drift Inn, where they were photographed on barstools by Al Strom for Katherine Graham. These photos were later used in the Washington Post when Liddy and Hunt and the others were arrested--because CIA men like Liddy and Hunt aren't usually photographed.

Roberts quoted to Liddy the "Chinese stock market in cars"--the price on Onassis' head, by the car, in retaliation for a few things Onassis had done and on Wayne Rector, the Hughes double; Eugene Lyman, California Democratic Party Chairman and JFK Mafia bagman; and on Lyndon Johnson: "four bodies swinging in the breeze."

Roberts: "Quoting the prices to Liddy at the Drift Inn made their deaths a mortal cinch. Liddy's like that--and that's why the murdering SOB was picked up by the Mafia." "Camotones rolling around the Drift Inn in February inspired Liddy's "Camotone Plan" that became Watergate."

Feb. 1972: Francis L. Dale, head of CREEP, and ITT Board of Directors nearly pushed Magruder to push Liddy into Watergate.

In a Mafia-style effort to shut Roberts up, his father was murdered by "plumbers" team members Liz Dale (Francis L. Dale's ex-wife), Martinez, Gonzalez, Parker, in Hahnemann's hospital in S.F.--where Mr. Roberts had been taken after swallowing a sodium morphate "pill" slipped into his medicine bottle at home by Watergate locksmith (Miami's "Missing Link" locksmith shop) Gonzalez. The pill didn't kill him; he had a weak digestive system, and vomitted enough of the sodium morphate up (it burned his lips and tongue on the way out) but he had emphysema, and went to the hospital. In the hospital, "Nurse" Liz Dale and "Doctor" Martinez assisted him to sniff a quadruple-strength can of aerosol medicine--enough to kill him the next day.

On the following day, Tisseront, head of the College of Cardinals at the Vatican, was sodium morphate-murdered. Tisseront had followed the career of the present Pope, Montini, (whose mother was Jewish). Montini poison-murdered Pope Pius XI; was banished from Rome for it by Pius XII; became Pope in 1963. Tisseront wrote it all down; called the Pope "The Deputy of Christ at Auschwitz," and the fulfillment of the Fatima 3 Prophecy: that "The Anti-Christ shall rise to become head of the Church." Tisseront also wrote about all the early secrets of the Roman Catholic Church; that Jesus Christ was an Arab; that he died on the cross when the Roman Soldiers stuck a spear in his side, pulled out his liver, and ate it; that the Romans couldn't stop the early Christians from spreading their Gospels, so they decided to adopt the religion, clean it up, make Christ a Jew, and work out a Church-State deal to fuck the people in the name of God and country; a deal which has been operating ever since.

'37 Gemstones, with histories, to 27 countries--brought Red China into the U.N. and Taiwan out."

April 1972: Money pours into CREEP: "Gulf Resources and Chemicals Corp. Houston, Texas, "contributes $100,000; illegally laundered through Mexico, comes back through Liedtke of Pennzoil Corp., Houston. Robert Vesco gives Maurice Stans $200,000 "campaign contribution," etc. Liddy gives McCord $76,000. McCord buys $58,000 worth of bugging equipment, cameras, etc.

May 1972: J. Edgar Hoover had the Gemstone file; threatened to expose Dallas JFK in an "anonymous" book, "The Texas Mafia"; instead, he was poisoned. Someone put sodium morphate in his apple pie. The corpse was carted away from his home in the back seat of a VW--and his files "burned"----but some of them got away.

May 28, 1972: First breakin at Watergate: McCord, Barker, Martinez, Gordon, Gonzalez, Sturgis. De Diego and Rice stood guard outside. Hunt and Liddy direct the operation from a (safe) distance--across the street. The object was to check on Onassis' two men--Larry O'Brien, and Spencer Oliver. (Larry O'Brien's chief "P.R. client" had been Howard Hughes. Oliver's father worked for Onassis. McCord wiretapped their phones.

But!!! Little did McCord know that the Plumbers were being observed by Hal Lipset, Katherine Meyer Graham's S.F. detective, who had followed two of the plumbers from Liz Dale's side in S.F. to Watergate. Lipset "watched in amazement" as the Plumbers broke in and bugged the phones, then reported back to his boss, Katherine Graham. Lipset and Graham set the trap for the Watergate: when they returned to remove their bugs and equipment.

June 17, 1972: Bernard Barker was wearing his Sears, Roebuck deliveryman coat same as he wore at the Dr. Fielding breakin, and the Hahnemann's Hospital murder of Mr. Roberts.

Hal Lipset, Graham's spy, was dressed as a mailman. He left his mailbag behind when he taped the door at Watergate, watched security guard Frank Will remove it and walk on; retained the door, and as a result, Frank Will went across the street and called the police, and McCord, Martinez, Sturgis, Barker and Gonzalez were caught in the act. Liddy and Hunt, across the street, supervising, were not caught. Liddy called Magruder in California re: the Watergate arrests. Magruder told Mitchell, LaRue, and Mardian.

Time to burn files. Liddy shredded the Gemstone files at CREEP. Dean cleaned out Hunt's safe at the White House; gave Hunt's copy of the Gemstone file to J. Patrick Gray, acting FBI head: "Deep-six this---in the interests of national security. This should never see the light of day." Gray burned the file.

June 20, 1972: Demo. Chairman Larry O'Brien files a $1 million suit against CREEP--naming Francis L. Dale, the head of CREEP. This was a big Mafia mistake as Dale led directly back to Onassis.

June 21, 1972: The "18½ minutes accidentally erased" WhiteHouse tape: Nixon, furious over the Watergate arrests, couldn't figure out who had done it to who had taped the door at Watergate that led to the arrest? Hal Lipset, who primary employer at the time was Graham, couldn't tell him. Nixon figured it had to do somehow with Roberts' running around in Vancouver tracing the "Hughes" Mormon Mafia nursemaid's (Eckersley) Mafia swindle of the Canadian Stock Exchange; and Trudeau. The 18½ minutes was of Nixon, raving about Con: "asshole Trudeau," "asshole Roberts," Onassis, Hughes, and Francis L. Dale. I simply couldn't be released.

Stephen Bull's secretary, Beverly Kave, later heard the "erased" tape. She was in a locked room in the White House. She was horrified. She sent out some depressed Christmas notes to friends, and sodium-morphate "heart-attacked" at age 40 in a White House elevator outside the locked safe room where the tapes were stored.

January, 1973: Tisseront was dead--but as the Church rushed to destroy every copy of his papers, Roberts received one--and wrote a few of his own, released over several years:

- 1) "The Cover-Up of the Murder of Christ"
- 2) "The Yellow Race is not in China--The Yellow Race dead--Fucka Mary Jo Kopec"
- 3) "Mrs. Giannini's Bank of America Financed the Murder of JFK at Dallas via Alioto's Frattiano, Brading, and Roselli."
- 4) "Vietnam--Fatima 3--Holy Crusade"

"Four documents, four bodies swinging slowly in the breeze."

1) Lyndon Johnson: Sodium Morphate "heart attack" at his ranch on the Pedernales River.

2) Alexander Onassis' plane crash at the "100-foot Walter Reuther Level," via a fixed altimeter, at the Athens airport.

3) Ernest Lyman: California Democratic Party Chairman, and JFK assassination bargain--heart attack.

London.

Started the shattering of the Mafia economy.

March 18, 1973: Roberts called Hal Lipset, discussing all these matters publ--over a tapped phone. Lipset reported to Dean, who had hired him away from Graham after they figured out who had taped the door at Watergate (Mitchell "Katie Graham's liable to get her tit caught in a wringer.")

March 19, 1973: Dean, to Nixon, nervously: "There is a cancer growing on the Presidency."

March 21, 1973: Nixon said that on this date, he "received new evidence" on Watergate. Lipset later bragged on TV that it was he who had brought the "new evidence" to Nixon.

Meanwhile, back at the Washington Post, Katherine Meyer ("Dean threat") Gra had been feeding Woodward and Bernstein information for their articles.

May 10, 1973: The first witness at the Watergate hearings, running down the names on the CREEP organizational chart, mentioned the name at the top: Francis L. Dale, Chairman. Dale's name was never mentioned again during the of the hearings.

July 9, 1973: Roberts had used Al Strom's Drift Inn bar as an "open lecture forum" for any and all--CIA, Mafia, FBI, and anyone who wandered in for a beer and Al Strom taped it all, for Katherine Graham. But "Al was fair"--and told Roberts he was doing it--for which he was murdered on this date.

August 1973: Murder of Chile, by the Group of 40 (Rockefeller and his man, Kissinger), working with the CIA, and $8 million. Allende's Chile had nationalized ITT, Rockefeller had copper mines in Chile. Admiral Sauler, Naval Intelligence, told Roberts 14 years earlier that Chile would get it; Roberts warned the Chilean consul in advance.

Now ITT has exacted $125 million payment for its Chilean plants--a heavy tribute, and a good return on their $8 million. Mafia-controlled Chile's annual inflation is setting a world record. In the style of the good old Holy Roman Empire: a slave nation paying tribute to the conqueror.

October 1973: another "Holy War"--Israelis vs. Arabs.

January 1974: Joe Alioto grants S.F. Sunol Golf Course lease to Mafioso Romano, Frattino. Moniz, Vadeiros, Abe Chapman, and Neil Neilson. Alioto set up the Dallas murder squad in S.F. for more murders.

January 26, 1974: "Hughes" extradition trial, cancelled in Reno, by "Alioto Mafia Web" Mafia Judge Thomson; after Roses (sp?) Lasky, from Mafia Alioto's "California Crime Commission," wave the forged "Howard Hughes" signature under his nose.

Mahou "wins" his damage suit against "Hughes"--his blackmail pay-off--after discussing Hughes' "game-plan" for buying U.S. politicians.

Feb. 1974: Mafian Hearst's daughter Patty "kidnapped" by Lipset's SLA--in a fake terrorist action.

Martin Luther King's mother was murdered--by a black student, a self-declared "Israelite," "acting alone," who was escorted to the church by someone--and who had a list of other mothers as targets. Next day, the target, Shirley Chisholm, got the message, and rushed to sign off on the suit against CREEP, naming Francis L. Dale; she was the last hold-out.

April 4, 1974: Mary McCarthy, a writer who had been given a copy of the Gemstone file, said in an article in the New York Review of Books that the key to the formation of Liddy's Gemstone plan lay in the whereabouts and activities of the Plumbers between December 1971 and January and February, 1972. Answer: They were in the Drift Inn, watching Gemstones rolling around on the bar top.

August 6, 1974: Nixon and Ford signed a paper at the White House. It was an agreement: Ford could be President; Nixon got to burn his tapes and files, and murder anyone he needed, to cover it up.

August 7, 1974: Roberta passed information to Pavlov at the Russian S.F. Consulate which led directly to Nixon's resignation: the "Lore" journalism review's story about Denny Walsh's "Reopening of the Alioto Mafia Web" story or the New York Times, killed in a panic; plus some back-up evidence, possibly tape (???). Hal Lipset, listening to the conversation in the bugged Consulate room, had phone lines open to Rockefeller and Kissinger, who ordered Nixon to step down and Ford to step up--to keep the coverup going.

August 8, 1974: Nixon resigns.

August 23, 1974: Frattiano is in San Francisco, staying at the Sunol Golf course. More murders are scheduled re: Gemstone coverup.

August 30, 1974: Ford hires Mafia lawyer Becker to work out a pardon deal for Nixon, who might otherwise name Onassis, Graham, and Pope Montini.

San Francisco Zebra Murders:

series of "random" killings in San Francisco, dubbed "Zebra Murders" by the police, because, supposedly, blacks were killing whites (sometimes the "blacks" turned out to be "whites", like Remiro and Little of the SLA) The real target of the Zebra series was Silva, the witness to Alioto's Mafia Nut Tree meeting. Silva was shot to death in an alley. Careful Mafia planning went into this series, to kill several birds with one stone: Get witness Silva out of the ...fear of "black terrorism," and convince people that the police department needs more money; Blame and frameup Black Muslims--knock off leaders of the opposition.

Sept. 7, 1974: Roberts had made an agreement with a friend--Harp, of S.F. Kish Realty, over a bugged phone. Harp was to buy a Gemstone, with history, for $500--the price of a trip to Canada for Roberts to 'check into Hughes' Mormon Mafia Canadian Stock Market swindle, and other matters. But Harp was sodium-morphate poisoned before the deal could go through--on this date.

Note: Sodium Morphate: a favorite Mafia poison for centuries. Smells like apple pie, and is sometimes served up in one, as to J. Edgar Hoover. Sometime in a pill or capsule. Symptoms: lethargy, sleep, sometimes vomiting. Once ingested, there is a heart attack--and no trace is left in the body. Proof is in the vomit, which is usually not analysed. Not mentioned in your standard medical books on poisons--a common ingredient in rat poison.

Sept. 8, 1974: Ford pardons Nixon for "all crimes committed from January 20, 1969 through August 1974."

Gemstone papers still floating around the world. Norway and Russia threw CIA out of Spitzbergen. India's Gandhi talked about "U.S.'s 'bloody deals'."

Oct. 1974: Ford drops "extradition" of Hughes from the Bahamas.

Oct. 3, 1974: The Watergate Trial--the coverup of the coverup gets underway, starring Montini's Ben Veniste, Onassis' deal, Graham's Jill Volner. In the White House, Mafia Mayors, Alioto, Daley, and Beame met with the "truth squad,"--Ford, Scott, and Griffin-- and Mike Mansfield, in secret.

Oct. 10, 1974: Tina Livanos Onassis Blandford Niarchos, poisoned with Sodium morphate by hubby, Stavros; puked, slept, and died of "heart attack."

Losing his son, Alexander, took all the fun out of killing for Onassis. Who was there to inherit his empire? He ordered his daughter, Christina, to divorce her husband, Mafia Joe Folker (sp?), and marry her first cousin, Phillipe Niarchos.

Which brings us almost to the present time. Onassis is dead. The Mafia world organization is regrouping itself. King Faisal of Saudi Arabia, working on Arab unity, was assassinated. Vietnam and Cambodia have fallen. It looks like a contest between the Mafia and Rockefeller for the control of America.

End of Outline.
